

SPEAKER PROFILES

Professor Gérard Labuschagne
L&S Threat Management

Professor Gérard Labuschagne PhD is currently a Director of L&S Threat Management, South Africa's first sole-purpose Threat Assessment and Management Company focusing on workplace violence, extortion and threats. He is a Clinical Psychologist with the Health Professions Council of South Africa and a Criminologist with the Criminological Society of Sothern Africa, and Advocate of the High Court (non-practicing).

Manie van Schalkwyk
Southern African Fraud Prevention Services

Manie van Schalkwyk is the Executive Director of the Southern African Fraud Prevention Services, with a track record of serving the credit industry for over 21 years. Having served as the South African Credit Ombudsman for 11 years, he has extensive knowledge of the industry, relevant legislation, and the unique role and challenges of credit organisations. Manie will be sharing some of the latest developments in the Bureau environment.

Louwrens Liebenberg
The Insurance Crime Bureau

Louwrens Liebenberg is the Senior Project Manager of The Insurance Crime Bureau, and renowned as an expert in the field of insurance fraud. Lieb will share some of his extensive experience with regards to the latest syndicated trends in both Short Term Insurance as well as Vehicle Crime trends in South Africa.